The preachers and teachers quoted, or depicted in videos in these pages are quoted for the good things they have said or done. We know that some of them (all) of them have made errors, those errors we deny and denounce (Ro 3:10).

We also separate ourselves from the errors patently made by all the great saints of God whose errors the Holy Spirit recorded in the Scriptures. To mention a few: Jacob, who began as a cheat, thief and supplanter; Solomon who is still extolled for his wisdom; David, who sinned with Bathsheba; Peter, of whom Paul said But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. (Ga 2:11)

Our position is biblical -- Quench not the Spirit. Despise not prophesyings. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. Abstain from all appearance of evil. (1Thess 5:19-22)

Good (godly) men make mistakes and errors in doctrine. I am so looking forward, soon now, to receiving my resurrection body: Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. (1Jo 3:2) In the meantime I shall go on imperfectly overcoming, ("keeping short accounts with God"). If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (1 John 18-10)
